Small village situated in the verdant valley within the borders of the Normandy, Beauce and Perche regions, Tillières-sur-Avre is known for its cycling circuits and pleasant rambling and hiking paths which enable you to discover the wealth of its historic past.

Also a must inside Tillières :

- The XVIth. Century half-timbered houses
- The wash-houses
- The Castle-door, rue du Fort
- The Grand Parterre, overlooking the village, ancient parade ground of the feudal castle.
